Promotional Procedures Committee meeting held on Monday, July 31st at the Fire Training Center at Station #7.

Co Chairs were Leon Ragland and Steve Roberts.

The forth meeting held at Fire Station #7 included the following topics:

1. Possibility of increasing the number of eligible candidates on the 'waiting list'.
--General discussion only.
2. Further discussion of proposed PNA points as an addition to the current promotional process. Various adjustments to the accrued PNA points and discussion as to the written scores required to earn those points were discussed and voted upon.
--After presenting various proposed PNA-point possibilities to the presented PNA point system, a motion to accept the System with a recommended set of earned points was voted upon and accepted by the majority of the committee. Further discussion of cleanup language is awaiting further evaluation by committee members.
3. General discussion on new edition, testing material as it relates to the current material being studied by candidates as the year progresses.
4. General discussion on the makeup of future promotional boards.

Members remain asked to expand ideas/topics in "written form" suitable for discussion to next meeting concerning those ideas introduced and other topics suitable for the Promotional Procedures Committee.
